HOW TO PLAY

One person is in the middle or the passer. They give the command 'head' or 'catch'. The player they pass to passes back via the passers command. To make it harder: swap the commands, head=catch and catch=head. The a player returns the pass wrong they lose a life. Each player gets 3 lives, once they are all used they become the passer.

HOW TO KEEP COVID SAFE

This game can be played with people outside of your household as long as social distancing is maintained. Wash hands before and after playing. Use hand sanitiser every time a new person is on. Follow Government Covid-9 guidelines.

Develop speaking and listening skills under pressure. Create new games by adding words or phrases that mean "pass to the person two places to your right..." etc.
