HOW TO SET UP

HOW TO PLAY

Watch a live sports event, and pretend you are a reporter. Either write an exciting account of the sports event, or record an audio commentary on your phone or computer... or design a web page. Share it with friends and family. Ask them to rate it out of 10. Ask them how it could be presented better next time (how it could be improved).

STAY SAFE

When using the internet you must ask for parental permission first.

A great opportunity to improve presentation skills in a fun and engaging way. Accepting criticism and acting on it is also an important Core Strength competency.
